

Orange County Business Growth Forum June 11, 2009

The current economic climate is presenting many challenges to entrepreneurs in Orange County, the United States, and around the world. Entrepreneurs who wish to survive need to implement effective strategies that will ensure the success and growth of their businesses.

The Digital Media Center’s Business Incubator program was created to assist digital media technology entrepreneurs to develop and grow their business, and thus is pleased to offer “The Orange County Business Growth Forum”.
